GOLDEN ERA - Grandparents Special

Childhood is such an innocent and happy phase of our life. 😊 No problems 😊 No tensions 😊 No fear of the unknown 😊 Specially if one has lived in a joint family structure with grandparents, uncles and aunties and the extended family; it is an unforgettable experience 😊

I belong to one such family where we had the pleasure of being pampered and loved by the grandparents. Also any festival, there will be so much of fun and frolic 😊 All the female members getting together and cooking the favourite dishes of everyone. Children playing in the backyard with neighbours. It used to be so much fun. 😊

Kids used to get 4 annas or 8 annas 😊 In our days we used to keep this money and go for a movie together if permission was granted.

Then all that small small games which used to be there. I am sure many of you must have played the marbles, kite flying etc. In all homes invariably there used to be a swing in the backyard which used to be the focal point of fights when the smarter ones used to occupy it for inordinately long periods 😊 Parents meaning mothers had the duty of handling these world wars too 😊😊

Life used to be so simple yet pleasurable. No mobile phones, no computers or internet or video games. Children used to find pleasure in outdoor activities and simple games 😊

It is all part of a foregone era 😊 Wonder if this era will ever come back.
