STRIVE FOR EXCELLENCE

Principal's Message

An Educational institution ready for adapting to change is vital for success and well-being, as life constantly transforms. Some change is fixed, while others are evolutionary. Though change may be uncomfortable, adaptability protects mental health. John F. Kennedy believed in new beginnings and exploring the unknown. We are committed to elevating the school with fresh perspectives, teamwork, and trust. Parents involvement is integral to achieving personal and school goals. Students are urged to dream big and excel academically and personally. With guidance from experienced teachers, they should uphold ethics, positive attitudes, and discipline. Together, we strive for excellence, as success thrives in collective progress.

We personally believe that school fees should never come in between a child's growth and education. Essentially, GQ offers 3 payment options - EMI, Auto-Debit Payments and Online Payment Gateway Solutions to institutions. Our EMI facility allows parents/students to convert their annual or term fee payment into easy, convenient monthly installments. For most of our educational institution partnerships, this facility comes with zero extra costs(interest or any other hidden charges) for parents/students. Parents or eligible students, have to complete regular KYC and accept our EMI T&C as part of the sign up process for the EMI facility. This EMI facility is provided in partnership with various Banks & NBFCs.
